PLAY TIME: Go outside with some paper and crayons. Take a walk and look for birds and flowers. Talk about their colors and what they look like, and then try and draw them. Take the pictures you draw and hang them on your refrigerator. Let them be a sweet reminder that God will take care of you!

PARENT TIME:

This month, your preschooler is learning, "God will take care of me." It's a simple truth that is a huge rock in their foundation of faith. God will take care of me, and God will take care of you. It's simple. It's true.

But, you know what? They don't see God the way you and I do yet. We see God in the promotion at work or the kind neighbor who brought you a meal when your baby was born. Do you know where preschoolers see God? When they look at you.

You are the one meeting their basic needs day in and day out. You are the one who pours the milk and makes the cereal. You are the one who kisses the boo-boo when it hurts and makes sure they have clean diapers. When they look at you, they are seeing God taking care of them. Because, God gave them you. He gave them you to listen and learn and observe—to discover what His precious creation needs, not just physically but emotionally and spiritually as well. God gave your preschooler you. How awesome is that?

CAR TIME: It's easy to forget all the things God does to take care of us. This month, use your drive time to help you and your child remember. Take a few moments to pray when you get in the car or when you arrive where you are going. Pray for and thank God for things like: safety, a car to drive, money to buy groceries, teachers that help us learn, doctors to help us feel better, libraries to check out books, money to buy clothes, etc. Before you know it, you and your child will see God at work all around you.

BATH TIME: Grab some checkers or a bathtub crayon. Talk about all the people that help your child while you give him a bath. See how many people he can think of and make a mark or line up a checker each time he names someone new. When he's done, ask your child to count how many marks, pennies or checkers he has. Clap for God and celebrate Him for giving your child so many people to help him!

CUDDLE TIME:

Cuddle up with your child and pray. "Dear God, I am so glad it was Your plan to give [name of child] to me. I love him so very much. Help me to have wisdom and love so I will know how to take care of him. Help us both to trust Your plan and follow You wherever You lead. We love You, God. In Jesus name, amen."
